India's top spice exporters have built a legacy of quality and trust, making them the best in 2025.

"Navigating Success in International Trade."

Adarsh Global Spice : The Most Trusted Spice Exporting Company in 2025

“

Leading India's Spice Legacy Into A Global Future

In the world of spice, where tradition meets innovation, Naman Bathiya has emerged as a dynamic entrepreneur, which reduces the difference between India's rich agricultural heritage and the global spice market. At the age of only 20, he took a bold step to expand the family's domestic spices. Today he successfully leads both the Adarsh Trading Company and Adarsh Global Spices, which ensures simple supply of spices of first -class quality in both national and international markets.

A Legacy Rooted in Tradition

Ashok Kesharchand Bathia recognized the growing demand for quality spice, established Adarsh Trading Company at Market Yard of Pune in 1995. The company gained For over two decades, the second trading company remained a reliable name in the domestic a reputation for its superior quality dry red chilli, coriander seeds, turmeric powderserving wholesalers, retailers and food processors across india.

For over two decades, Adarsh Trading company remained a trusted name in the domestic spice industry. The company direct relationship with farmers and its commitment to purity ensured a steady supply of authentic Indian spices to local markets.

Domestic to Global: The Birth of Adarsh Global Spice

With a vision to expand beyond the Indian market, Naman Bathiya Launched Adarsh Global Spice in 2020, especially dedicated to high -quality exports of high quality spices worldwide. By obtaining directly from more than 500 farmers throughout India, the company ensures freshness, authenticity and fair trade practice.

Balancing Tradition with Innovation

Naman Bathia runs both the Adarsh Trading Company and Adarsh Global Spices, and has successfully created a double channel supply chain in domestic markets, expanding India's presence in global spice trade. Their approach combines modern business strategies, digital marketing and strong peasant conditions to ensure uniform quality and competitive prices.

His journey gives an example of how a young entrepreneur can honor the tradition of embracing innovation. By expanding India's spice trading globally, Naman Bathia does not just run a business - he shapes the future of Indian spices on the world scene, one export at a time.
